RETURN OF GOODS POLICY

To lodge a claim for a credit, the following steps need to be followed:

1. Contact your Uniline State Office to advise the basis of your claim – e.g. faulty goods; damaged in transit; incorrect item supplied, etc., - and the invoice number that the claim will relate to.
2. You will then be given a Credit Return Number and arrangements for the physical return of the goods will be advised. The Credit Return Number must be written on the goods being returned otherwise they will not be accepted by our warehouse staff.

Please Note:

- Any claim for credit must be lodged with Uniline within 30 days of the relevant Invoice date - No credit will be considered after 30 days.
  - All goods must be returned in their original packaging so as not to damage the goods. Any damage of the goods will be deducted from the original claim accordingly.
  - Goods must not be returned at any time prior to the Credit Return Number being issued by Uniline. Any items returned without a Credit Return Number clearly marked will not be accepted by any Uniline warehouse and will be returned at the customer's expense.
  - Uniline reserves the right to inspect the goods on their return to Uniline prior to approval of a credit.
- Only items that relate to 1 invoice number are to be put on any form – ie. no multiple invoice numbers per form or Credit Return Number.
  - Until all the above processes have been completed, a credit cannot be raised or issued.
  - Any Credit request by a customer for goods ordered incorrectly, not required or over ordered by the customer, will incur a 25% restocking and handling fee, and must be within 30 days of invoice date. Return of these goods, if approved, must be at the customer's expense.

Terms and Conditions for supply of goods

2. The terms and conditions for the supply of goods by Uniline to the purchaser:
  - a) shall be as set out herein unless amended by Uniline by notice in writing to the purchaser in which case the placing of an order by the purchaser with Uniline following receipt of such notice shall constitute acceptance by the purchaser of the terms and conditions as amended in respect of all future supply of goods by Uniline to the purchaser; and
  - b) shall not be varied by the wording of any purchaser's order form, notice of acceptance or otherwise unless such a variation is expressly agreed in writing for and on behalf of Uniline by its duly authorised representative.

PPS ACT 2009

13. The Customer agrees that Uniline will have a Purchase Money Security Interest (PMSI) (as defined in the PPS Act) in any product or equipment supplied to the customer.
14. The parties agree to 'contract out' under section 115 of the PPS Act in respect of goods that are not used predominantly for personal, domestic or household purposes:

- a) Sections 95 (notice of removal of accession), 96 (retention of accession), 118 (enforcing security interest in accordance with land law decisions), 121(4) (enforcement of liquid assets), 125 (obligations to dispose of or retain collateral), 130 (notice of disposal to the extent it requires notice to customer), 132(3)(d) (contents of statement after disposal), 132 (4) (statement of account if no disposal), 135 (notice of retention)

- c) Notwithstanding section 275, the parties further agree to keep confidential the contents of these Terms and related material.

Title

15. Title to and property in the goods supplied and delivered by Uniline to the Purchaser shall not pass until all goods delivered by Uniline to the purchaser and all debts owing by the Purchaser to Uniline no matter on what grounds have been paid for in full or the goods are delivered by the purchaser to a sub-purchaser thereof pursuant to a bona fide transaction in the normal course of business of the purchaser. Any payment made by or on behalf of a purchaser which is later avoided pursuant to any statutory provision shall be deemed not to discharge the purchaser's indebtedness and, in such event, the purchaser and Uniline are to be restored to rights which each respectively would have had if such payment had not been made.
16. Until title to and property in the goods shall pass in accordance with these terms and conditions the purchaser shall hold such goods as bailee for Uniline and shall store such goods in a proper and safe manner and in such a way as to be readily identifiable as the property of the seller.
17. The purchaser hereby irrevocably authorises the representatives of Uniline to enter upon the purchaser's premises where the goods are stored, or are thought by Uniline to be stored, for the purpose of repossessing them and subsequently reselling them.
18. It is agreed between the purchaser and Uniline that where Uniline enters the premises of the purchaser to take possession of the goods and it is not possible to otherwise identify which goods in the possession of the purchaser remain owned by Uniline, the determination of ownership will be determined on the presumption that the purchaser has sold goods purchased from Uniline in the same sequence as the purchaser has taken delivery of goods from Uniline which presumption is irrebuttable.
19. To the extent that title in the goods has not passed, the purchaser shall be entitled to agree to sell the goods in the ordinary course of its business as principal vis-à-vis the sub-purchaser and not as agent for Uniline. Uniline, however, shall be legally and beneficially entitled to the proceeds of sale and the purchaser shall pay such proceeds of sale into a separate account or otherwise shall ensure that all such proceeds of sale are kept by or on behalf of the purchaser in a separate and identifiable form. In particular but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing the purchaser shall not pay the proceeds of sale into any bank account which is overdrawn. Further, forthwith upon receipt of the proceeds of sale the purchaser shall pay to Uniline any of the aforesaid sums outstanding to Uniline and shall not use or deal with the proceeds of sale in any way whatsoever until such sums have been paid.
20. The purchaser's right to on-sell the goods may be revoked at any time by Uniline and shall be automatically revoked in the event of the purchaser:
  - a) failing to pay for any goods within the time prescribed;
  - b) being declared bankrupt;
  - c) having a receiver, receiver and manager, liquidator, provisional liquidator or official manager appointed over all or any of its assets;
